Spring newsletter

Learning in PSHE this term is based around Living in the wider world. Across school, the children will be learning and thinking about the role of internet and technology in their lives and how to use it safely, what it means to be part of a community, as well as thinking about money and what jobs they may like in the future.

Our objectives for each year group are taken from the PSHE association, which is the national body for PSHE. An overview of this learning for each Year group can be seen in the table. Class teachers are using the PSHE association resources and materials that are advised by this organisation. You can support PSHE at home by talking with your children about the themes that are being covered in their lessons this term.

Stockport's online safety hub has lots of resources for parents and carers and can be found here: <https://stockport.onlinesafetyhub.uk>

Natwest also has useful resources and ideas for teaching children about money, including games that they can play to learn more.
